4. Increase in Capital by the Company, and how carried into effect:

- (a) The Company may from time to time in general meeting increase its share capital by the issue of new shares of such amounts, as it think expedient.
- (b) Subject to the provisions of the Act, the new shares shall be issued upon such terms and conditions and with such rights and privileges annexed thereto as the general meeting resolving upon issuing the same shall direct, and if no such direction be given, as the Directors shall determine.

5. Capital same as existing Capital:

- (a) Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these presents, any capital raised by the creation or issue of new Existing Capital shares shall be considered as part of existing capital and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained with reference to payment of calls, installments, transfer, transmissions, forfeiture, lien, surrender, voting and otherwise.
- (b) The rights or privileges conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preference or other rights, shall not unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied or modified or affected by the creation or issue of further shares, ranking pari passu therewith.

6. Reduction of Capital:

The Company may from time to time by special resolution, subject to confirmation by the Court and subject to the provisions of sections 78, 90 and 100 to 104 of the Act, reduce its share capital and any Capital Redemption Reserve Account or share premium account in any manner for the time being authorized by law in particular, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power by:

- (i) extinguishing or reducing the liability on any of its shares in respect of share capital and paid up; (ii) either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares, cancel paid up share capital which is lost or is unrepresented by available assets; or (iii) Either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares, pay off any paid up share capital which is in excess of the wants of the Company; and may, if and so far as is necessary, alter its Memorandum, by reducing the amount of its share capital and of its shares accordingly.

7. Conversion of Share into Stock and Reconversion :

The Company in general meeting may convert any paid up share into stock and when any share shall have been converted into stock, the several holders and of any such stock may thenceforth transfer their respective interest therein or any part of such interests in the same manner and subject to the same regulations as, and subject to which shares from which the stock arise might have been transferred, if no such conversion had taken place, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit. The Company may at any time reconvert any stock into paid up share of any denomination.

DIVISION, SUB-DIVISION, CONSOLIDATION, CONVERSION AND CANCELLATION OF SHARES :

8. Subject to the provisions of section 94 of the Act the Company in general meeting may by an ordinary resolution alter the conditions of its Memorandum as follows, that is to say, it may:-

- (a) Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares ;
- (b) Sub-divide its shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than originally fixed by the Memorandum and so however that in the sub-division the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived, and so that as between the holders of the shares resulting from such sub-division one or more of such share may, subject to the provisions of the Act, be given any preference or advantage over the others or any other such shares.
- (c) Convert all or any of its fully paid up shares into stock, and re-convert that stock into fully paid up shares of any denomination.
- (d) Cancel shares, which at the date of such general meeting have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

9. Modification of Rights :

If at any time the share capital by reason of the issue of preference shares or otherwise, is divided into different classes of shares, all or any of the rights and privileges attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, subject to the provisions of section 106 and 107 of the Act and whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied, modified, commuted, affected or abrogated with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths in nominal value of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class. This Article shall not derogate from any power, which the Company would have, if this Article was omitted. The provisions of these Articles relating to general meeting shall mutatis mutandis apply to meeting of such holders except that if a quorum as defined in Articles is not present, the persons who are present shall constitute the requisite quorum.
